AT OAKHALL CHURCH, 181 CHALDON ROAD, CR3 5PL

LIVE MUSIC

Every Night

Each evening we will have a short break and live music entertainment. We have invited Andy along with other local professional musicians to play at our Real Lives events.

IDENTITY AND MILLENNIALS

Wednesday 5th February 7:30pm

Free
Event

Josie, Sian and Megan are three young millennials working through what identity means in a social media world, in a world where they have limited opportunities to make an impact. "Who am I?" is the biggest question of their generation.

IDENTITY AND FOOTBALL

Thursday 6th February 7:30pm

Free
Event

Richard was signed by Graham Taylor as a 12-year-old to join the Youth Training School at Wolves. Richard spent a number of years in league and non-league clubs but eventually he realised his heart wasn't in it. His story is about his experiences as a professional sportsman and how his faith has shaped who he is now.

IDENTITY AND SEXUALITY

Friday 7th February 7:30pm

Free
Event

In his late teens Josh struggled with coming to terms with his identity – he was attracted to people of the same sex and was drawn into the gay culture scene and all that it meant. Today Josh is still same sex attracted and yet by God's grace is married to Priscilla. He has four children and works for an international Christian charity.

COMEDY NIGHT WITH PAUL KERENSA

Saturday 8th February 7:30pm

Paul is a British Comedy Award winning writer for BBC's Miranda, Not Going Out, Top Gear, ITV's Royal Variety Show and C4's TFI Friday. Paul's taken his solo show to 100s of events and festivals. He's also written for Michael Buble, Matt LeBlanc, Miranda Hart, and people whose names don't begin with M too.

Tickets
On the door

Being an in-demand comedy writer brings with it questions about identity too and Paul will do a Stand-Up set and then share how Jesus has shaped who he is today.

For more information about any of the events please contact: office@oakhallchurch.org.uk or give us a call on 01883 370 264

Real stories of real people changed by the real Jesus.

Each evening we will hear from a guest who will share their life story with us. After a short break for refreshments, there will be musical items, a short thought and a chance to ask the guest questions.

IDENTITY AND JUSTICE Sunday 9th Feb 11am

Free
Event

Graham and Simon are guests for our café event on the Sunday morning and will share their stories of how a good cop and a bad cop both came to know their need for Jesus.

Graham: had been a police officer for several years before he realised there was more to life.

As a man committed to upholding the law he came to realise that being a good cop was not enough to meet the demands of God's justice.

Simon: After 23 years as a policeman Simon turned to a life of organised crime, chasing money with no limit. Simon is a dad who went from enforcing the law to breaking it and had murder on his heart when God stepped in and rescued him.
